Martin Post

Regional Schools Commissioner for North-West London and South-Central England

Aimed at schools leaders whatever their position in the MAT Federation journey so far – for those undecided, those considering forming or joining a MAT, in a newly formed MAT or already established. This is a must for all school leaders, governors and trustees who are looking for support and advice on how to secure the future of their schools.

The MAT Forum from Herts for Learning, is designed as a half-day event aimed to provoke thought, inspire, and give key knowledge on both the progress of MATs so far, and the future landscape. The event will have a strong focus on networking and relationship building through speakers providing a national perspective, panel questions and a roundtable workshop.

Key topics are to include Strategic growth, Leadership skills, Sustainable Educational improvement, financial management and governance structures.

This half-day event will provide delegates with the opportunity to hear advice on the leadership of a MAT and success criteria to achieve sustainable educational and financial improvement for their schools.

Key benefits:

- Understand the national agenda
- Network with colleagues
- Be informed and inspired by speakers with local and national perspective

Key subject areas:

- Strategic growth
- Leadership skills
- Governance structures
- Financial considerations
- Sustainable Educational improvement

Aimed at:

- Chief Executives
- Executive Headteachers and Headteachers
- CFOs & Business Managers
- Chairs of Trustees & Chair of Governors
- Other MAT & School leaders
